SELL WATER AT 10 CENTS A GALLON

Sanford, Me., March 5.—By tomorrow the water famine suffered here since Monday will have been relieved, town officials say. Three day the contractors began installing an auxiliary pump. The pump in the reservoir, it was believed, would last until the pump was in place. But a heavy drizzle for Sunday and delay in the pump work by the storm resulted in the reservoir going "dry." Thick ice on the river made it impossible to turn there for a supply. Householders were forced to melt snow for cooking and drinking. Drug stores had short even of distilled water.

SACCO IN WITNESS TELLS HER STORY OF '3D DEGREE'

FITZ NAMED IN DEAL FOR RED SOX

Gallivan, Kennedy, Heyer and Conway Also in Group of Hub Men

By CHARLES E. PARKER.
Hot Springs, Ark., March 5.—Ex-Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, now at Palm Beach, Fla.; his son-in-law, Joseph P. Kennedy, of Hayden, Stone & Co., a former second baseman on the Harvard nine; John C. Heyer, vice-president of the Federal Trust Company, which is reported to hold a mortgage of $600,000 on the club; Joseph F. Conway and Congressman James A. Gallivan comprise the Boston syndicate which will buy the Red Sox from Harry H. Frazee.

Ben Johnson, president of the American League, in back of the deal. The former star of baseball made it impossible to turn there for a supply. Householders were forced to melt snow for cooking and drinking. Drug stores had short even of distilled water.

Owners of springs and wells could not meet the demand for water at ten cents a gallon.

The plan is to have Congressman Gallivan, president, Gallivan was a second baseman at Harvard in 1898. Gallivan had an appointment with Frazee at Chicago two days ago but learned by telephone that Frazee, because of a court case against the Red Sox play second fiddle in the affections of the Boston public and so put the screws on Frazee. The price, in Frazee's suit, is $1,000,000.

Rumors of Sales
Don't Affect Club
Larry Graver, secretary of the Red Sox, has said nothing of the reported sale and could give no enlightenment on the issue. So many times has Larry been called upon to discuss sale rumors that he is inclined to react them lightly and in this case his comment is "no, it's probably just another of these rumors."

Votes Down Salary Increase for Dr. Magrath

Dr. George B. Magrath, medical examiner for the Northern Suffolk District, will have to continue his soap championship of his laurels; half on his old salary of $5,000 per.

The legislative Committee on Public Services today unanimously voted against his bill for an increase of salary to $6,000 and of his expenses from $5,000 to $7,500.

A similar bill filed by Mayor Curley to increase Magrath's salary and expenses was also unanimously dropped.

Dr. Magrath may still find consolation in his outside fees of $100 a day testifying as an expert in other States on time for which the citizens of Suffolk County pay him.

GRAND JURY IN 'TURKEY' PROBE

Mulwoney and Dr. Mahoney Called as Witnesses in
'Bribe' Case

Evidence in the alleged attempt to bribe Dr. Patrick H. Mulwoney of the Boston Health Board was presented to Suffolk Grand Jury today by District Attorney O'Brien.

Dr. Mulwoney was the first witness. He was followed by George H. Coffey, formerly a policeman at the Boston Health Board and now a member of the district attorney's staff.

Dr. Mulwoney was removed by District Commissioner Dr. Francis X. Mulwoney and later reinstated. The case was investigated by the Boston Finance Commission, which recommended the removal of Dr. Mahoney.

The Finance Commission claimed the Richmond Police Company, of which Abraham Rubenstein, head, attempted to bribe Dr. Mulwoney.

The report stated that "on December 21, 1922, there was delivered to the home of Dr. Mulwoney an unmarked and unaddressed package which the expression said was for Dr. Mulwoney."

FORCED BY THREAT TO SIGN PAPER

Mrs. Lola R. Andrews of Quincy told today how she was given the "third degree," as she has said in an affidavit, into a statement in retraction of her testimony as a State witness at the trial of Sacco and Vanzetti.

"I got a telegram from my son at the Hotel Essex to 'Come and see me at once.' I sent two telegrams, but received no answers. Then I telephoned. My son answered, saying I must come to see him at once."

"I went to the hotel and met my son. I asked him if he was alone. He said two men were with him. He took me to room 319."

"I asked him what it was all about. He said I would have to ask the other men and then they entered."

These were the men mentioned in Mrs. Andrews' latest affidavit filed by the State as John Van Vorwick and "Fred."

"Both these men," said Mrs. Andrews, "were Italians. They said they wanted to talk on the Sacco-Vanzetti case."

"When they said that I nearly collapsed. That one had followed me everywhere."

"They threatened me. They said they would kill me. They threatened my children. They threatened my husband. They threatened my life."

Sacco Tells of His 'Innocence' as He Starves in Jail

By JOHN L. SPIVAK.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

On a cot in a cell in the Norfolk County Jail at Dedham, lies Nicola Sacco, whose conviction for a South Braintree murder resulted in international complications from riots, bomb-throwing and attacks upon American embassies by protesting European radicals.

Sacco has been in jail for thirty-four months, pending legal action in his case. His own courts death from starvation rather than undergo further imprisonment.

Today he entered the twenty-first day of his hunger strike, resolved either to die or to gain his freedom.

The father makes no effort to feed him except to place food before him three times a day. He is not yet sufficiently weak to be fed forcibly.

Sacco, a little man of thirty-one, was a shoemaker by trade and an avowed radical. He is a native of Italy, and that it was his radicalism that brought the seizure of the electric chair to him and what he terms the "unsolved murder."

It was odd to walk into the spacious jail with Mrs. Rose Sacco, a pretty woman before her husband was imprisoned, not worn and haggard from months of fight for her husband's freedom. Once in the chilly-like silence of the jail and near cell 14 of the east wing, she said pathetically:

"Please do not be afraid. I will not cry. He is brave and I love him."

IN SACCO'S CELL.

The door opened and a ghastly Sacco came out.

Three blankets lay on him for the body no longer gave warmth.

"Nick, he will die," said Mrs. Sacco, softly, turning her face away, her chin quivered.

"And my baby, and my son, Dante—death is hard only for those who are left behind."

"Thank you," Sacco said, "for not bringing the children. It would be too hard."

THOUGHTS IN THE NIGHT.

"For thirty-four long months I have been here," he said slowly. "Do you know what that means? These iron bars, the white walls, the silence and my thoughts that come to me in the long hours of the night?

"I was convicted of murder, I whose whole life was devoted to love of my fellowman."

"They say I killed a man for money. When I was arrested I had $1,500 saved up in a bank. If Vanzetti and I did commit the crime, would we, twenty-one days after the crime, when thousands of dollars were out for reward for the murderers, plan to make public addresses for the sake of the crime?"

"If they arrested me for murder who did they question me for days about Socialism, Communism, and anarchism before the murder charge was placed against me?"

WAIT FOR NEXT CAR, 'L'S' ADVICE

Don't crowd. If the first car is crowded, wait for the next. It will be along soon. There will be a seat in it for you.

The above advice in the straplines of Greater Boston was given today by Chairman James F. Jackson of the Elevated trustees at a hearing today before the legislative committee on Street Railways.

Jackson appeared on the Mill of Representative James J. Malen of Lynn, which would place a fine on street car officials who allow cars to be crowded in excess of 25 per cent of their seating capacity.

He said the Elevated has received 25 of 250 new cars recently ordered and that tomorrow it will open bids for 100 more new cars.

He said the plan to run four-car trains through the Boston street railway from Kenmore to Lechmere square will be helpful.

Europe is Worried Inherited Fortunes
We Marry Too Late
5,000 Miles—No Stop
By Arthur Brisbane

EVERYTHING in Europe is unsettled, except in France, where they have a definite policy and are working it. The Turks have rejected the proposition of the Allies, and there is to be a year conference and more discussions, probably at Lausanne. The Turks are good bargainers.

ENGLAND is worried about the defeats inflicted upon Bonar Law's Parliamentary candidates. News came yesterday of another Bonar Law defeat. France's policy worries England. She doesn't want to quarrel with her ally.

Flying machines carrying dynamite bring London and Paris close together and make iron battleships ridiculous. A quarrel in the morning might mean a big city laid waste in the afternoon. War can now be made with uncomfortable speed.

MR. W. K. VANDERBILT left fifty-four millions to his children, after giving fifteen millions to a daughter before his death. An agreeable, shy person, Mr. Vanderbilt was grandson of a man that managed railroads. Mr. Vanderbilt lived in Paris. Great part of the time, interesting himself in yachting and horse racing. He left one million each to his three grandsons, children of an English Duke from whom his daughter was divorced. He leaves good pictures to a public museum, and that is his story.

SOME QUESTION the wisdom of allowing an individual to inherit tens of millions, doing no work and spending through his lifetime an income of about ten thousand dollars a day. It would probably be a mistake, as yet, to interfere with that except through inheritance taxes. Men do their best work in order to leave money to their children. And it is important that they should do their best work.

PROFESSOR ANDREWS of Columbia College worries about late marriages. Fathers and mothers should start savings accounts for young people to enable them to marry before twenty-three and twenty-five years of age. Thirty or thirty-five is too late, he says. The nation needs early marriage.

Plato thought the other way, and would have all marriages much later than the present average. Perhaps the old Greeks had more left in them after fifty than modern Americans.

ONE THING is certain, the modern boy and girl of twenty-three are not grown up. They are children, not men and women. And each knows little about his real mind and what it will be when it develops—if it ever does develop.

Before closing, I should like to say a few words on the application of my methods to the training and correction of children by their parents.

The latter should wait until the child is asleep, and then one of them should enter his room with precaution, stop a yard from his bed, and repeat 15 or 20 times in a murmur all the things they wish to obtain from the child. From the point of view of health, work, sleep, application, conduct, etc. He should then retire as he came, taking great care not to awake the child. This extremely simple process gives the best possible results, and it is easy to understand why.

When the child is asleep his body and his conscious self are at rest, and, as it were, annihilated; his unconscious self, however, is awake; it is then to the latter alone that one speaks, and as it is very credulous it accepts what one says to it without dispute, so that, little by little, the child arrives at making of himself what his parents desire him to be.

What conclusion is to be drawn from all this? The conclusion is very simple and can be expressed in a few words: We possess within us a force of incalculable power, which, when we handle it unconsciously is often prejudicial to us.

us. If on the contrary we direct it in a conscious and wise manner, it gives us the mastery of ourselves and allows us not only to escape and to aid others to escape, from physical and mental ills, but also to live in relative happiness, whatever the conditions in which we may find ourselves.

Lastly, and above all, it should be applied to the moral regeneration of those who have wandered from the right path.

IRISH FORCES IN RECEIVERS FOR BIG BATTLE THE L.R. STEEL AT CARRANE ENTERPRISES

Dublin, March 8.—A violent battle between the Republican irregulars and Free State troops is in progress near Carrane today.

Four hundred irregulars were reported to be in the hand attacking the Free State forces.

Three columns of Free State soldiers have been sent to the front. The Republicans have been suffering heavily in recent fighting. Since Monday twenty-one irregulars have been killed, whereas Free State fatalities were only eight. The wound list is proportionate.

An entire column of Republican irregular troops was captured in County Mayo today.

Buzz, Buzz, Buzz Means "Line Is Busy," Beginning Monday

Next Monday the telephone company will put into operation its new calls in the Metropolitan Division a new busy line signal, having a distinctive tone that sounds like a continuous buzz, buzz, buzz.

It will be a new way of telling you to hang up your receiver and wait a few minutes before calling the same number again.

This change looks forward in a general way to the introduction of the new innovations, to the introduction of the new innovations, to the introduction of the new innovations.

In this division, but aside from that, telephone officials say it is an improvement on the present click-click-click signal in that it will be more easily recognized.

BRITISH PRESS SEES PHEASANT IN RUHR ZONE

By the Associated Press
London, March 8.—Glimpse pictures of the situation in the Ruhr, with varying degrees of uncertainly, are painted today by the London newspaper correspondents.
A Düsseldorf dispatch to the Telegraph says that unemployment is increasing and that the political situation is dangerous. Economic conditions are described as depressing, asserting that 25,000 persons are without work in Düsseldorf alone and that the unemployment wages are insufficient.
The workers are noticeably discontented, the correspondents add, and rumors are current that they are beginning to doubt the issue of the struggle.
The position that "the cautions in the Ruhr may boil over at any time with fearful results in blood" is expressed by a Cologne representative of the Westminster tribune.
He continues:
"It is the opinion of those here that the situation is so grave that it is soon reached it can only be a matter of time before another war breaks out. I am told the German army is being retrained to fight in the Ruhr. If the forces are attacked."

IF RHEUMATIC BEGIN ON SALTS

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry.
Avoid Exposure and Take Jad Salts

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat no sweets or any kind of a white drink lots of water and above all take a special of Jad Salts regularly to help keep toxic acids and poisons out.

Rheumatism is caused by poison toxins, called acids, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood. The poison of the kidneys is also a means of freeing the blood from the poisons.

In damp, chilly weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to double work, they become sluggish and fail to eliminate the poisons, causing accumulation and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism test from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts, put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and rink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to urinate acids, remove body waste, also to stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and it is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lily and is used with excellent result by thousands of folks who are suffering from rheumatism.

U. S. MEN WARN OF NEAR EAST "VOLCANO"

Albany, March 8.—(By International News Service).—The situation in the Near East was described today as a "live volcano" by a group of American bankers and business men, legation to the International Chamber of Commerce meeting in Rome.
They have spent the last week studying conditions in the Mediterranean countries.

Oliver Sands, president of the American National Bank of Boston, Va., speaking for his colleagues said:
"The fires of this volcano are constantly smoldering. If the people in the United States believe the Near East situation is clearing up, they are badly mistaken. It was never muddled. Never was there such life and such loss of life threat ed. More than at any other time are the prayers and thoughts and funds of our home people needed."

The Near East relief committee is doing excellent service and saving thousands that would otherwise have died. The American people must not speak with a divided voice when referring to the work of the Near East relief committee.
Others in the party are George Borah of the Continental Chamber of Commerce, Charles A. Brown of the National Bank of Chicago, Attorney at Law, and John W. Brown of Pittsburgh and Miss Atwater of New York.

5 AT DEATHBED SHOT BY NEGRO CONVICT

Nashville, Tenn., March 8.—Sam
Haston, brother of Ernest Haston,
Secretary of State, his mother, Mrs.
Haston, his sister, Mrs. H. H. Haston, a sister, Tullie Trogan, a son living on the Haston place, and a son were shot at the family home of Haston near Smyrna, Tenn., today by Lewis Douglas, a negro convicted convict, who escaped from the shooting and is being sought by a posse.

It is reported members of the family were sitting up with Mrs.
Haston, who was seriously ill, and who died this morning.

The report reached Nashville that Mrs. George Haston could not live and that Sam Haston had both legs broken by the negro shot.

Secretary Haston left here for Smyrna, with bloodhounds.
Douglas, the negro, was sent to prison in 1915 to serve 20 to twenty-one years for arson.

JAIL AND FINES ROAD TRACTOR FOR 3 IN LYNN USED TO KILL LIQUOR CASES KLAN VICTIMS

Rules Ralph W. Jones in a new record for heavy sentences in liquor cases in Lynn today. Judge Jones Greenberg and Maria Cavallone, second hand selling merchandise of Pure spirit, Lynn were fined $100 each and sentenced to four months in the house of correction. "They were not really men," said the judge, "they were just a quart of liquor and a million dollars."

Yesterday and Wednesday were first time trials and gave three months and fines sentences. They included Judge Jones from the house of correction and Maria Cavallone. Appeals were taken and the case set to trial again.

William Perkins was fined $100 on a charge of keeping liquor. He paid for the fine. Perkins was caught by Patrolmen Dugan and Kennedy while negotiating a sale of liquor from a doorway in Pleasant street, Lynn. Moses Young, who purchased the liquor, was a witness for the prosecution.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC FAR AHEAD OF LAST YEAR

FRENCH NAVAL PLAN ON BASIS OF U. S. PACT

Paris, March 8.—(By Associated Press)—The government's naval program was increased in the Chamber of Deputies today by Minister of Marine Balthus with the result that the program was increased within the framework of the Washington accord, so the government could after "Gauguin" (read it in French) to obtain their tariff.

The program, outlined the minister, "does not fix the number of ships, but it fixes the number of ships to be built."

For the purpose of providing for the construction of ships, the government has an intention of constructing in that extent at present, for these reasons:

Firstly, the type of capital ship has not been settled upon; secondly, plans have not been made to construct a fleet of capital ships and

BRITISH NAVY COST $33 PER CENT

London, March 8.—(By International News Service)—Great Britain has cut her naval expenditures 33 per cent, in two years, Lieutenant Colonel Leopold Ames of the admiralty announced in Commons today.

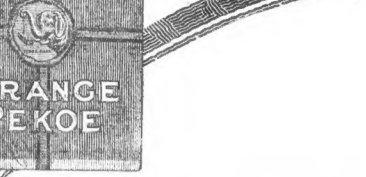

The 1923-24 estimates for 1923-24 are 41,403,345 pounds sterling compared with 62,476,657 in 1921-1922 and 67,250,000 in 1921-1922.

Colonel Ames said Great Britain showed her good faith by scrapping all the ships condemned under the Washington treaty even before it was ratified.

Buy on Oakland's "Mileage-Basis" Plan—and Know In Advance!

When you go to the show judge the cars you see on the basis of the actual mileage they will deliver!

You have probably owned one car, perhaps more, you're motor-wise! Look for power, beauty, economy—look for a body that pleases the eye and a price that fits your purse—but look beyond these things!

Make sure in advance of the quality built into the car, and of the satisfying mileage it will deliver!

For the first time in motor car history, you can do this!

Under Oakland's "mileage-basis" plan you can know, before you buy, those things you have hitherto perhaps ignored only to experience!

Oakland will tell you, for instance, that its engine will function properly for 15,000 miles or more before requiring grinding!

Oakland will tell you that its main crankshaft bearings and connecting rod bearings will require no attention or adjustment under 40,000 miles or more!

In Oakland Six will deliver 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline 15,000 to 20,000 miles per year of tires!

And the major parts of an Oakland Six, axles, frames, bodies, etc., will endure throughout the life of the car!

When you weigh these figures in the light of your own personal experience—as a motorist with cars of various makes—you will appreciate how remarkable they are!

And when you remember that Oakland last year guaranteed the performance of its engine for 15,000 miles, and that it cost Oakland only a fraction of a cent per car to make good this guarantee, then you will appreciate the value of Oakland's "mileage-basis" plan.

See all the cars at the show! Judge the cars you see on the basis of the actual mileage they will deliver!

Under Oakland's "mileage-basis" plan you can know, before you buy, those things you have hitherto perhaps ignored only to experience!

 So long, Cinders.

The First Silk Hat

THE top-hat, invented by John Hetherington, a London haberdashery, was worn by him on January 15, 1775. He was arrested, the charge being that women had fainted at the sight of his hat.

Some Curious Beliefs

There is a curious belief in some parts of the world that a person who has been married three times will never die. The belief is based on the fact that the first wife of a man who has been married three times is said to be the only one who can bring him back to life.

TAKING A CHANCE

A Little Story of Hunger and Love and What Happened When a Woman College Graduate Was Reduced to Her Last Dime

By Burke Jenkins

When the college graduate who had been reduced to her last dime, she found herself in a very different position. She had no money, no friends, and no place to go. She was alone in a strange city, and she was hungry. She had to find a way to survive, and she had to do it quickly. She had no time to waste. She had to find a way to get food, and she had to find a way to get a place to stay. She had to find a way to survive, and she had to do it quickly.

Dawn and Twilight

At dawn twilight, the sea reveals its secrets, and the chime of great waves and black rocks, pale white misty sea, waves coral reefs the heaving life changes of life. Youth and love at dawn, never think of home port, warmth and glow, spring flowers, in their hair, light and do not ache for the evening wave. The ship lies dreaming the bill of the green wave under

When a Girl Marries

By Ann Folde

When a girl marries, she enters a new world. She has to learn to live with a man, and she has to learn to live with a family. She has to learn to live with a new set of rules, and she has to learn to live with a new set of expectations. She has to learn to live with a new set of people, and she has to learn to live with a new set of problems. She has to learn to live with a new set of challenges, and she has to learn to live with a new set of opportunities.

LAWS OF NATURE

By Garrett P. Serviss

There is a law of nature that governs the life of every man. It is a law that is as old as the world, and it is a law that is as true as the sun. It is a law that is as powerful as the wind, and it is a law that is as gentle as the rain. It is a law that is as mysterious as the night, and it is a law that is as clear as the day. It is a law that is as beautiful as the stars, and it is a law that is as simple as the earth.
